DIVERSE Learning Platform – Terms of Use

Version 1.0 · 14 October 2026

These terms of use govern the use of the DIVERSE learning platform (the "platform"), the shared online learning environment of the GreenTech4Transformation (GT4T) project and the partner universities of the DIVERSE European University Alliance. The platform is operated by Istanbul Beykent University (contact: beykent-gt4t@beykent.edu.tr). By creating an account you accept these terms. How we process your personal data is explained in the separate Privacy Policy.

1. Who may use the platform

- The platform is for the students and staff of the partner universities and for the participants of GT4T activities.
- You must be at least 18 years old, or have the consent of your parent or legal guardian.
- Accounts are created for a partner university. Your partner university approves your registration and may close accounts that do not belong to its students, staff or participants.

2. Your account

- Your account is personal. Do not share your password or let others use your account.
- Give correct information when you register and keep it up to date.
- If you think someone else has used your account, tell your partner university's manager or write to beykent-gt4t@beykent.edu.tr without delay.

3. Acceptable use

Use the platform only for learning, teaching and the activities of the GT4T project. You must not:

- upload or share content that is unlawful, offensive, discriminatory, harassing or violent;
- upload content that infringes copyright or other rights of others, or personal data of other people without their permission;
- share course materials, recordings or other users' contributions outside the platform without permission;
- record live sessions or take screenshots of other participants without the consent of everyone involved;
- try to access accounts, courses or data you are not authorised to access, or disrupt the platform (for example with malware, automated requests or attempts to bypass security);
- use the platform for advertising or commercial purposes.

4. Respectful behaviour

Treat the other participants with respect in forums, messages and live sessions. Teachers and partner managers may remove posts that break these terms.

5. Your content

- You keep the rights to the content you upload (for example assignments and forum posts).
- You allow the platform, your teachers and the participants of your courses to use your content as far as needed for the course (for example to read, grade, comment on and show it in the course).
- You are responsible for making sure that you have the right to upload the content you share.

6. Course materials and intellectual property

Course materials belong to their authors or to the partner universities. Unless the material states otherwise (for example an open licence), you may use it only for your own studies. The DIVERSE and GT4T names and logos may not be used without permission.

7. AI course assistant

The AI course assistant generates answers automatically and can make mistakes. Check important information against the course materials and ask your teacher when in doubt. Do not enter sensitive personal data (for example health data) into the assistant. When you submit work, follow your course's rules on the use of AI.

8. Availability

We aim to keep the platform available, but we cannot guarantee uninterrupted access. The platform may be unavailable for maintenance, updates or technical problems, and features may change. Keep your own copies of important work.

9. Liability

The platform is provided free of charge for educational purposes. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the operator is not liable for damage caused by the unavailability of the platform, by loss of data or by content uploaded by users. This does not limit liability for intent or gross negligence, for damage to life, body or health, or any other liability that cannot be limited under applicable law.

10. Suspension and closing of accounts

If you break these terms, the platform administrators or your partner university may remove content, suspend your account or close it. You can ask for your account to be closed at any time by writing to your partner university's manager or to beykent-gt4t@beykent.edu.tr.

11. Changes to these terms

We may update these terms when the platform or the law changes. The current version is always available on the login page. If the changes are significant, we will inform you on the platform.
